

Deed Restriction Clarification for Political Signage

Deed Restriction Number 12:

“No sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public view on any vacant lot. One sign of not more than five (5) square feet, advertising the property for sale or rent, may be erected on any lot improved with a single-family residence.”

A lot owner may display up to four political sign(s) of their choice on any lot improved with a single-family residence 60 days prior to a general election, special election or runoff election for Federal, State and County official elections. Signage must be removed seven days after the election has terminated. All signage must be non-offensive in regard to language and art work.
